

Call for Fire – Action Alert

From: Sword of Fire, Armour of Light

Posted: January 2005

Isaiah 21: 6

“For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth. “

Ezekiel 33: 6

“But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.”

Reviewing my journal entries over the past seven to ten years I have discovered something which both startled and grieved me. I discovered in the review of my journal entries that God has consistently spoken to me regarding the conditions of our society and world three to four years ahead of realization.

In numbers that point upwards of 95 – 98% accuracy, when I have annotated Divine Activity from within my spirit and committed it to paper there has always been a manifestation of that communication anywhere from three – four years.

Most of the prophetic forecasting I've received has been specific to the formation and implementation of Luciferian Initiatives in the US and Western Societies by the Occult Community, the Ascending Powers of Global Paganism, Islam and the Dragons of the East.

Throughout all of 2004 and reverberating painfully in my spirit in 2005 is the assembling within the United States of a Totalitarian Government in formation.

(I know this is nothing new to many of you, but it must be stated again and again, till we move to overthrow it)

Revelation 17: 3

“So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.”

Whenever spiritual liberties are marginalized and objective truths are no longer being upheld to maintain the standards of our society, it will not be long before all standards of justice are eroded.

2nd Corinthians 3: 17

“Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.”

If there is anyone who believes that their natural, and physical liberties are not in jeopardy they are alluding themselves. There is a correlation between spiritual liberty and natural liberty.

Hebrews 11: 3

“Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.”

Let us thank the Lord for His Word and the fail/safe measures that are contained in His Word. Should we have missed these omens from a spiritual vantage point, God has built in mechanisms whereby we can see the natural conditions(signs) and adjudge the spiritual parallels that correspond to His truths.

Psalms 11: 3

“If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?”

Foundations (Heb) shathah - masculine noun – support, basis, purposes
Figuratively : political and moral foundations

Another way of looking at this scripture is this [If the foundations of a society are overthrown, what can the righteous do?]

These foundations refer to the Law and the Order of a society; civilization; era; generation; or an age based on the Lord’s Rule, and not that which is based upon the law of the rule of man.

In order to break the rule of Law and the Order of a society that rest upon the Lord’s rule, there must be a violation within another arena that has more authority than Government.

Revelation 17: 16

“And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.”

The answer lies within Revelation 17: 16. The beast shall hate the whore and shall eat her flesh and burn her with fire. Dr. Paula A. Price speaks of the Seven Spheres of Creation. Number One on her list is Worship and Ritual.

It has always been about worship, covenant and fellowship with God. This is so simple for me to see, in order for there to be a beast there had to have been first a violation of true covenant that gave rise to the woman who sits upon the beast.

Now, I could take all day and write out an exposition of these scriptures, but, I won't do that here. This is a communiqué to other Apostolic and Prophetic Warriors all over the country, but more especially to my companion in arms at Rivers of Living Waters in Chicago and the City of David in Nashville, TN.

If you are reading this and you cannot understand the significance and its meaning. This is okay. Maybe later down the road God will call you to return to receive the understanding of your role in this war.

If you desire never to read this again, I ask that you at least pray our success in Christ, as we engage in Front Lines Spiritual Warfare.

Now, let's move forward and release what is needful for this hour to those Apostolic and Prophetic intercessors and prayer warriors.

Since Worship and Ritual appears to have the supreme authority in the realm of men as a gateway or portal of access; and, since covenant is always the foundation of worship, it stands to reason that whoever has the strongest covenant shall make the greatest sacrifices for power.

Tactical Battle Objectives:

Our tactical battle plan must therefore include:

Disrupting the actions and activities of ritualistic worship that give access to demonic operations and systems and which reinforce our enemies covenant to demonic deities.

Psalms 139: 19

“Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.”

Vs. 20

“For they speak against Thee wickedly, and Thine enemies take Thy name in vain.”

Vs. 21

Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate Thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against Thee?

Vs. 22

“I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.”

Vs. 23

“Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me and know my thoughts:”

Acquiring Target:

Celebratory Worship of Alternative Religious Systems – Spec. Neo - Paganism

I believe that we must target on a coordinated basis the holidays, feast and festivals of the Occult; Satanism; Paganism; Witchcraft; Wicca's; Sorcerers and Magicians and all other alternative religious systems when and wherever known.

Regardless of the pantheon of gods and the different names of the demonic deities served most of the dates are the same around the globe.

Here is a listing of the all the dates compiled to date from my database. I've included some that are on the charts for a regular wicca and others that are for Sorcerers and Vampiric Satanists as well.

What you will find extremely useful is the hedonist calendar I've included. This will help you to fight with advanced knowledge the periods of Lust and Perversions that seeks to have access to your territories.

Remember Sex Magik is extremely powerful and important to the Occultic Community to release demons in the earth, so take Godly Pleasure and delight in launching attacks on those satanic feast days especially.

Here are a few of the highlights.

(All of these dates are based on Northern Hemisphere seasons; to calculate Southern Hemisphere holidays, simply add six months.)

Carnivale (January 8-9) - During this merry time, people dress up and behave outrageously. In Spain, young men may safely make social advances to upper-class ladies, and women may choose whatever partner they fancy for the festivities, without waiting to be asked.

Lupercalia (February 13-15) - Forget that old fuddy-duddy St. Valentine and get it on with the wolves! This Roman holiday celebrates heat, the passion of the animals, and all of Nature. Interested maidens and youths would enter a lottery, then spend the day in romance or more carnal pursuits with their randomly selected partner.

Festival of Astarte (March 17) - Canaanites (pre-Biblical Palestinians) honored the union of male and female on this day. Besides indulging in lots of sex, people also dyed eggs red as fertility charms. Sound familiar?

Ostara (March 21) - The Spring Equinox brings returning life. Many cultures celebrated this with playful sex as well as decorating with symbols of rebirth.

Veneralia (April 1) - Women worshipped the goddess Venus by bathing her statue in sacred rivers or lakes, then carrying her back to the temple to adorn her with jewels and fine robes. The women also bathed nude in the wild waters, and decorated themselves sensuously ... hence the popularity of this holiday among young men, reputedly snuck through the woods to watch!

Beltane (May 1) - Perhaps the most famous fertility festival today, this Celtic rite features huge bonfires. People leapt over the coals and drove cattle between the fires for health and procreative power. Other activities included contests to win the May Queen's favor, dancing around the (phallic) Maypole, and picking flowers for love charms.

Feast of Pan (May 18) - A paean to male sexuality at its best. Men celebrated by dancing nude, sometimes while wearing gigantic stuffed phalluses for emphasis. Ithyphallic (erect) statues of Pan were especially popular.

Jarila's Day (June 4) - This Slavic holiday celebrated Jarila, god of the sun and of fertility. Huge crowds of people gather to sing and carouse. A highlight is the erotic dancing.

Litha (June 21) - This day marks the height of the sun's power, an especially magical time. Children conceived at the summer solstice are considered lucky - or even the offspring of the Sun God - in many Pagan traditions.

Feast of Hathor (July 24) - This Egyptian goddess wears the horns of a cow, symbolizing both fertility and nurturing love. Her festival invokes the gentle, enduring love between married people. Cook shredded beef and take turns feeding each other!

Feast of Aphrodite and Eros (August 1-2) - Together, these deities represent love and passion. They remind us that either can grow out of the other, but neither alone is enough for a long-term relationship.

Radha's Day (September 1) - Another holiday for married folks, this one honors the Indian goddess Radha. She brings fertility, joy, and prosperity.

Thesmophoria (October 6-9) - Kore elopes with tall-dark-and-handsome Hades to transform into Persephone, Queen of the Underworld. Claim your sexual power!

Isis Resurrects Osiris (November 13) - After reassembling his severed body parts, Isis constructed a new phallus (to replace the original, eaten by crabs!) for Osiris. She then revived him, and their lovemaking conceived Horus. Now that's what I call devotion!

Mother Night (December 24) - Many goddesses around the world give birth at this time. The holiday celebrates the fruit of lovemaking.

Satanic Sabbaths

1 – Lammas – Feast of the Sun God.

29 Jul – 1 Aug

Satanist Coven usually requires a sexual sacrifice (female, 7 – 17 years old) and animal sacrifice.

2 – Harvest Home (Equinox)

22 Sep

Satanist covens require a human sacrifice (male, must be sexually mature).

Also Orgies.

Additionally common to both Witches and Satanist are the lunar feast – 26 in a year.

The lunar feasts are called Esbats, and are celebrated on each dark moon and each full moon. Usually, black (i.e. evil) magic is done near or on the dark of the moon and white magic (healing, spells for finances, jobs fertility) is done near or no the full moon.

Specialized Satanic Holidays, Part 1:

Crowleyan (Thelemic) Festivals and those related to the Set cult:

1 – The Equinox of the Gods:

8 – 10 Apr

The Anniversary of the bringing forth of Liber Al.

Sometimes celebrated with drugs and orgies

2 – The Feast of Sothis (Sirius at its apogee)

23 Jul

Some groups celebrate by animal sacrifice (dog), but this is rare.

3 – The Feast of the Prophet and His Bride:

12 Aug

Aleister Crowley's wedding anniversary to Rose Kelly.

Celebrated with Sex Magic of some sort.

4 – The Feast of Tahuti:

7 Sep

Homosexual Sex Magic

5 – “Crowleymas”

12 Oct

Crowley birthday, No Set Celebration.

Specialized Satanic Holidays, Part 2:

Miscellaneous Satanic Feast – Commonly celebrated by some groups but not all.

1. - Satanist own Birthday

2 – Major Roman Catholic Feast Days.

Especially Easter – Feast of Istar

Good Friday

Christmas (Feast of Sol Invictus)

And St. John's Night – requires a human sacrifice (male or female, ideally a Christmas Minister, a Christian ex – Satanist or the child of a Christian) also orgies.

3 – The 13th and the 31st day (if one) of a month:

Also any Friday the 13th. Magic performed, but not necessarily physically dangerous.

4 – Feast of the Beast:

7 Sep

(BUT only every 27 years, last one was 1982, the next one in 2009)

(1) Human and (2) sexual sacrifice and (3) dismemberment (female cannot be more than 21, should be a virgin)

Wiccans live, worship and celebrate by the changing seasons and lunar cycles. The year is cyclical, it is like a wheel, revolving from season to season and year to year, hence the name "Wheel of the Year".

Every year there are eight Wiccan holidays known as Sabbats and there are 12 - 13 Esbats "lunar holy days" consisting of the new and full moons.

Here is a brief explanation of the Sabbats as celebrated by Wiccans:

Samhain pronounced "sow-in" October 31

Also known as Halloween, All Hallow's Eve, Hallowmass or Day of the Dead, Samhain is the Wiccan & Witch new year. This is one of the most important of Sabbats, for we remember those that passed from the world of the living, to the world of the dead and the veil separating the two worlds is at its thinnest.

Yule (Winter Solstice) December 21

Winter has covered the earth and this is a time for the telling of stories, the sharing of skills and knowledge and the burning of the Yule log. It is the longest night of the year and Yule trees (where the idea of the Christmas tree came from) are decorated by Wiccans and are a symbol of the green, fertile land that will once gain spring forth with life come spring.

Candlemas (Brigid's Day or Imbolc) February 1 – 2

Spring is coming, although winter is still upon the land. Wiccans celebrate Candlemas by blessing their ritual tools and building a bonfire to signify the warm sun.

Ostara (Spring Equinox) March 21

This Sabbat corresponds with the arrival of Spring and is a good time to prepare for the planting of gardens, flowers, herbs and other plants. During this time, it is evident that Winter will end soon, and this is a very joyous occasion. Celebrating fertility, Wiccans paint eggs, an ancient fertility tradition which was adopted by Christians in celebrating Easter.

Beltane April 30 - May 1

Beltane, like Samhain, is an important Sabbat, and one of the most joyous. This is traditionally a fertility festival, and companions that wish to make a commitment to each other will hold a Handfasting (like marriage) to strengthen their commitment with one another.

Midsummer (Litha or Summer Solstice) June 21

This is the longest day of the year. Everything has been planted, the days are warm, the animals are prolific and life is good.

Lammas (Lughnasadh) August 1

The harvest yields its bounty and a huge feast is prepared. Homemade breads, and Summer fruits and vegetables are plentiful. Corn dollies are made from dried corn husks and winter is just around the corner.

Mabon (The Autumnal Equinox) September 21

This Sabbat celebrates the harvest of grain. Winter is closer yet and we appreciate the last harvests of the year. Wine is also made, as grapes ripen in some areas during this time. Wiccans celebrate this season with a feast of grains, apples, and other fruits and vegetables. The next Sabbat is Samhain, and so the wheel of the year starts its cycle again.

Moving with its natural course, through different phases and astrological signs, the moon has a particularly potent effect on witchcraft. Each cycle of the waxing and waning moon spans several days, and by being aware of each phase of the moon, you can add power to each ritual performed.

Dark of the Moon:

From the time the moon is no longer visible to the naked eye until the new moon (known as the dark of the moon) is the most useful time for divination of all kinds.

The New Moon:

This is an exceptional time to do witchcraft for new beginnings, and for the conception and initiation of new projects.

Waxing Moon:

The waxing moon is appropriate for spells that involve growth, healing and increase.

The Full Moon:

Known as the "high tide" of psychic power, The full moon represents culmination, climax, fulfillment and abundance.

Waning Moon:

The waning moon is the best time for cleansing, banishing and completion.

Lucky Dates:

According to the Grand Grimoire (the ancient book of spells that still influence the practice of witchcraft), there are certain days of the year that are considered lucky for the performance of witchcraft.

Unlucky Dates:

Just as there are lucky dates, the Grand Grimoire also cites certain dates as being particularly unlucky for the performance of witchcraft.

Solstice:

Solstice occurs twice a year, in summer and winter, when the sun is at its greatest distance from the celestial equator and does not move either north or south. this point is ideal for performing witchcraft pertaining to the seasons.

Equinox:

Equinox is the time when the sun crosses the plane of the Earth's equator, making night and day all over the earth of equal length. This is the perfect time for performing witchcraft that is beneficial to the universe.

Candlemas:

A Fire Festival to induce the Goddess of Spring to drive away darkness and bring warmth to the soil.

May Eve:

A celebration of the fertility of crops, animals and human beings.

Halloween:

A pagan festival dedicated to the dead.

The Days of the Planets and their influences:

Sun/Sunday

Gaining money, finding treasure, harmony, friendship, fortune.

Moon/Monday

Necromancy, travel over water, visions, love operations.

Mars/Tuesday

Death, destruction, hatred, discord, channelling spirits.

Mercury/Wednesday

Commerce, obtaining knowledge, theft, deceit, fear.

Jupiter/Thursday

Money, Status, good health.

Venus/Friday

Ceremonies of lust. love, pleasure, friendships.

Saturn/Saturday

Injury, death, destruction.

Some of these days I've listed overlap. However, this should communicate to you the importance placed upon these days and how the various extant currents of Witchcraft, Paganism and the Occult value the importance of these feast days.

Luke 18: 1

“And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

If there is one thing that I'd like to communicate to you it's this. Prayer will keep us from temptation and from being ensnared by the forces of Darkness. This is a defensive posture which we as Believers have far too long been encased.

God has given us a love that is to abound in all knowledge and judgment. Judgment is proactive and it's time for us to not only defend ourselves from the works of darkness but to be contributors toward the destruction of darkness in this planet.

It might be late, but, it's not too late yet for us to affect the destiny of our world and generation. God only needs a short period of time to change the course of nations, however, in order for him to move there must be someone in the earth enforcing His judgments.

Proverbs 3: 33

“The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just.”
